NEW YORK, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1916 .- Copyright, 1916, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association

Extraordinary Shot on Ninth Turns Tide in Match With Whittemore.

VICTOR PLAYS PAR GOLF

p costly into the cup. the change of di-this afternoon. The

CARTER WINS FINAL, WILLARD AND MORAN TO PACE GETS TOO HOT MAKES HOLE IN ONE FIGHT FOR $70,000 PURSE

Champion Will Receive $47,500 for Thirty Minutes of Battling if Bout in This City Goes the Full Ten Rounds.

Willard Says He'll

Knock Out Moran

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Jess Willard declared to-day that the fight with Frank Moran in New York on March 17 will not go the ten rounds and he doubts if the Pittsburger will last eight with him. "I am going to make this fight as short as possible," said

Willard, "although I hate to deprive the fans of the chance to see a lot of fighting for their

Tex Rickard and Samuel McCracken promoters of the proposed ten round championship battle between World's Heavyweight Champion Jess Willard and Frank Moran in this city March 17 or Augusta this have guaranteed a purse of $70,000 to ollowed by the big- yesterday. Undoubtedly it will be an nounced Wednesday afternoon, when the gallery saw a match interested parties or their representa-one while it lasted, tives meet at Considine's to arrange final articles and post forfeits. While Tex Whittemore, with the was 1 up. The number to was on This hole is 14".

This hole is 14" Willard, but it had not arrived last and Carter squared, night.

A mashie for the tee and and McCracken finally ran the price and mashie for the tee.

setisfied with $20,000 as his share until he learned that Willard was getting a majority interest in the pictures and $2.560 training expenses. First he and his manager tackled Rickard for a share Brooklyn man. They will furnish the "Help yourself." was Rickard's answer to a demand of a third interest. "You may have all the promoters' share and welcome." Moran then pressed his claim to training expenses equivalent to the sum given Willard. This point he also Matt Brock.

TON HALL RALLIES.

Stories sent out of the middle West to the effect that there had been a split to the effect that there had been a split to the effect that there had been a split to the effect that there had been a split to the effect that there had been as plit to the effect that there had been a split to the effect that there had been to the light and other vagaries of the Heights Casino court, having played there only one before, with a statement signed by Eddle Smith denying that the men were unaccustomed to the light and other vagaries of the Heights Casino court, having played there only once before, while Men and the sen with the head of the f

FOR BEHR AND PELL

Murray and McNeal, Amateur-Professional Team, Win Special Match.

CAPTURE EVERY

Karl H. Behr and Theodore Roosevelt Pell, Middle States doubles champions, and McNeal in straight sets, at 7—5, hope of witnessing the weak crushing the strong. Most of the defaults were the strong. Most of the defaults were due to men stepping aside gracefully in favor of clubmates. they would like to try one more set.

They were downed in the extra set at 9-7 in spite of the fact that the Murray-MoNeal combination had slackened good, more was bad and most was mid-

He was the guaranteed more than $60,000 as and set, and set of the prize money, he admits that the representative, Lewisholin, was not handle settled to the prize money, he admits that the trayer will be prize money, he admits that the representative, Lewisholin, was not handle settled to the prize of the prize of the large crowd will also an open at the form will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd was and point of the large crowd was and point of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd was and the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and zero.

The match was somewhat of a disability of the large crowd will also and the large crowd wi boy went all through the afternoon without the loss of a single service game and McNeal lost only one, the latter an inconsequential game when his team was leading at 5-2 in the second set, and the cannon ball of the cannon ball it looked as if there would be a rea contest. The order of service was Peli Murray, Behr and McNeal. With mo

WINSTON STARTS WELL IN DEFENCE OF CROWN

National Squash Champion Shows His Best Form on Home Court as Title Tournament Gets Under Way; Defeats Phelps Easily, 15-10, 15-2.

Everything ran smoothly in the open-ing matches of the annual tournament for the national squash tennis champion-occasion and upon taking service ran ship yesterday at the Harvard Club courts. A quarter of a hundred matches were decided, ten of them by defaults Another stubbornly contested affair. were decided, ten of them by defaults and match.

Were defeated yesterday afternoon at the Heights Casino in a special indoor tennis match by Robert Lindley Murray, the sterling California left hander, and Harry McNeal, Heights Casino product of the annual squash fixture, and it was that between J. Walker 3d of the Yale Club and G. L. Catlin of the Bridge-port University Club. Walker gained the verdet in three games, after a remarkable finish, at 19-15, 18-17, fessional. The match went to Murray and McNeal in straight sets, at 7-5, those who go to see the matches in the hope of witnessing the weak crushing game, which he won easily. For the hope of witnessing the weak crushing game, which he won easily. For the the speed necessary to give them, a fighting chance.

Murray, great on the outdoor courts, was far better indoors. If his game westerday is to be taken as a fair sample of what he can do, there is little doubt but that the national indoor title will go to the Pacific coast too, for the Palo Alto boy will start in that tournament at the Seventh Regiment Armory next Saturday.

Service was one of the main factors in the deciding of the match. Murray and McNeal used theirs to advantage, Fell and Behr did not. The California boy went all through the afternoon without the loss of a single service game of the games Richards came within a couple of aces of victory before they out the loss of a single service game of the set. Cordier, however, came of the speed of the set.

from F. S. Pane, Heights Casino, by hit: J. H. Williams, Heights Casino, from R. G. Coburn, Harvard Club, hit: Royal E. T. Riggs, Heights Casino,

NEW YORK WILL KEEP

EASTERN POLO TEAM

STATE OF THE PARTY NAME OF THE

Charles M. Bull, Jr.

will meet again in the semi-final

HOCKEY CLUB FALLS IN OVERTIME PERIOD

Wendell Tallies for Boston From Osgood's Pass and Makes Score 4 to 3.

BEATS WESTERNERS

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

death period. Osgood made several dashes down the rink in a desperate effort to score, but the Hockey Club's despendence broke up the play Finally the Boston rover got away with a clear field, but was forced into a corner. He passed prettily to Wendell, who stood waiting and the winning goal was counted.

Neither team played very good hockey. In the first half the visitors kept Donathue busy in making stops, while Lewis had scarcely a thing to de. Boston scored in less than two minutes on a pass from Hutchinson. Howard tied it.

CALDWELL FIRST IN HUNTER MILE; BEATS CHAMPION

Ray, National Title Holder. Also Behind Devanney in Boston Feature.

LOOMIS IS DEFEATED IN FORTY YARD DASH

orked his famous sprint and led the Caldwell, apparently away in the ruck and outclassed, electrified the crowd. Starting from fourth place in the last lap and running like a frightened deer, whizzed first around Willie Gordon of the New York A. C., then Jole Ray of the Illinois A. C., the champion, who had been leading, and lastly past Mike Devanney, last year's winner, and win-ning the classic event by a scant yard nell, never changed his pace.